Numb. 225.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

THURSDAY May 4, 1738.

LONDON, December 20.

THE Fine Anthem of Mr. Handel's was perform'd by the ſeveral Choirs of the Chappel Royal, Weſtminſter-Abbey and Windſor, and the Boys of the Chappel Royal and Weſtminſter-Abbey; and ſeveral Muſical Gentlemen of Diſtinction attended in Surplices, and ſung in the Burial Service. There were near 80 Vocal Performers and 100 Inſtrumental from his Majeſty's Band and from the Opera, &c And the Muſick was extremely grand and ſolemn.

Dec. 31. They write from Vienna, that a Propoſal has been made to Count Seckendorff to ſtifle his Proſecution, and to proceed no farther in it, provided that he will ſign two Conditions; the firſt of which was, that he ſhould never through the Whole of his Life, ſerve againſt the Emperor, nor directly nor indirectly do any Thing contrary to the Intereſt of his Imperial Majeſty: And the other Condition was, That he ſhould ſuppreſs his Reſentment, and not take Vengeance of any Perſon whatſoever on account of his preſent Proſecution. It is aſſured, that he accepted of the firſt of the two Conditions in very nicely-choſen Expreſſions, ſaying, That he was too well acquainted with his Imperial Majeſty's Uprightneſs of Heart and Greatneſs of Soul, ever to ſuffer even the Shadow of Sentiments, contrary to the Intereſt of his Imperial Majeſty, to ariſe in his Mind; that he ſhould for ever perſevere in the ſame Way of thinking; and that he would be ready, on all Occaſions, to ſacrifice whatever was deareſt to him, even the laſt Drop of Blood, for the Sake and in the Cauſe of the Houſe of Auſtria: But, in Regard to the ſecond Article, a mean Compliance with the Conditions thereof, would give a mortal Wound to his Honour, and the World juſt Cauſe to look upon him as a contemptible cowardly Wretch, who well deſerved much heavier Puniſhments than he had undergone; wherefore he was determined, whatever might be the Conſequence, to take a Signal and bloody Vengeance on thoſe who had ſtrenuouſly laboured to accompliſh his Deſtruction and Diſgrace; and who at the ſame time were conſcious of his Innocence.

Briſtol, Jan. 14 We had laſt Monday, at the cloſe of the Evening, and a Continuance of it for ſome Hours in the Night, ſuch a violent Storm of Wind, Hail and Rain, that the like has not been felt ſince the great November Storm in 1703. At the King's Watch houſe at Pill the Water never flow'd ſo high ſince that Storm till now, when it came within four or five Inches of the Mark then made in the ſaid Houſe; the Cuſtom-Houſe Boat which came from thence, and divers others, were in Danger of being loſt on the Lee-Shore, being ſeveral Times on it, but got off again. The Hawkins, Capt. Cole, (who is ſick on ſhore) bound to Cape-de-Verd Iſlands and Carolina, is drove on the Marſh in Glouceſterſhire, and it's doubtful whether ſhe'll get off The King David Brigantine, bound to Philadelphia, was drove from her Moorings (in the Hole) upon Cannons Marſh, but got off the next Morning with much Difficulty. The Water broke in over the Sea-Banks in the Hot-Well Meads with ſuch Force, that ſeveral Garden Walls were thrown down, and other Damage done in that Neighbourhood. The Freſhes too, occaſioned by the Rain and Hail, joined with the Rapidity of the Tide, have done incredible Damage to this City, by the overflowing of thoſe Streets, Cellars and Houſes near the Water, particularly from the Key it carried off, as we are informed, upwards of 40 Hogſheads of Oil, &c. belonging to ſeveral Merchants of this City; alſo a large Number of Deals, Mahogany Planks, Pitch, Tar, &c.
